HIGH HOLY DAYS 2018 5779

The rabbis of old understood the need for proper behavior and the need to speak with one another with civility, honesty, openness, and kindness. In fact, they spend more time talking about talking than many other subjects. During these High Holy Days, under the banner of “Derekh Eretz” (proper/civil conduct) we will explore how our behaviors and the words of our mouths determine the world in which we live. And as it turns out … we have choices. But those choices become limited, sometimes, based on the choices others make.

Our High Holy Days Mailer will be on its way soon in early August!

BULLETIN INFORMATION

Thank you to the content providers for sharing. A huge thanks to our team of meticulous editors.

We would love to share your good news. Please submit your simchas, announcements, articles, and photos. Please email all submissions to Cynthia Silber, Temple Administrator.

Submission deadline for the September - October 2018 edition is Thursday, August 2
"Transition, Transition," to paraphrase Tevye in Fiddler on the Roof, we too at Temple Emanuel will be experiencing many transitions over the next two months. However, unlike Tevye, who wrestled with change, my hope is that we will be embracing these changes as they positively impact our second Jewish home.

First, I would like to welcome our congregants who are transitioning onto the Board of Governors and thank those who are transitioning off the Board. I am truly grateful to be working alongside a very talented and committed group of volunteers. I am thankful not only to them but also their families for their support as they engage in this sacred work. The Executive Committee is composed of the president, six vice presidents, secretary and past president who perform a variety of functions that are typically completed by salaried employees in synagogues with larger congregations. The Board is composed of Governors and Committee Chairs who represent your voice at the table. We meet 10 times per year to discuss relevant issues as we work toward maintaining a vibrant and engaging Jewish presence in Winston-Salem. Please, if you have an idea, concern or inspiring program that you feel would benefit our community, let us know. We look forward to hearing from you.

Second, we would like to welcome our new Director of Education, Debi Rowe. By the time this article is printed or electronically delivered, Debi and her husband, Alan, will have completed the long drive from their home in San Pedro, CA to Winston-Salem. Debi transitions into our community with a depth of knowledge and experience in Jewish education. We have planned two events to welcome Debi and Alan to Temple Emanuel. Please join us:

- Friday, August 3 following our Shabbat Service for a free pasta and salad dinner sponsored by the Board.
- Sunday, August 26 for a Pancake Breakfast to kick off Religious School sponsored by our B’nei Mitzvah students and families.

Third, the Education Building will undergo several transitions to make it a physically safer, technologically advanced and spiritually richer place of learning and gathering. The building will be closed July 30 through August 17 as construction begins. Like people, buildings show signs of aging. Thankfully, Stephen Paige’s keen eye caught a serious problem on the back side of the building. During the three weeks the building will be closed, the lintel over the preschool windows and building facade will be repaired, a new security system will be installed, the Beit Knesset will transition into the technology-rich The Lamed Center in memory of Robyn and Michael Block, and the weeping oak tree will be removed allowing us to rejuvenate the Jessica Wolfman Memorial Garden transitioning from a shade garden to a sunny garden providing us with a beautiful outdoor space to engage spiritually.

Lastly, I want to thank the Temple Emanuel community and my husband, Jeff, for your confidence in me and your support as I transition into the role of Temple President...a role filled with wonderful tradition that I respectfully and eagerly embrace.

To a wonderful summer,

Vivian Smith
Temple President
RABBI MARK D. COHN

What’s NU … by us!

By the time this bulletin column sees the light of day, summer will be here in full force. And this summer means a few new things for our community.

First off: Welcome to Debi Rowe, our new Director of Education! Debi comes to us with a lifetime of experience in Jewish education and is known nationally for her creativity and energetic personality, which I had heard about through friends and colleagues who have known and worked with her at my childhood Reform Jewish summer camp, where my kids currently attend. The first time Debi and I started speaking on the phone, it took us nearly thirty minutes to discuss through the various points on the Jewish geographical map where we intersect … and since then we continue to find more people and places and experiences we have in common. We have already begun discussing ideas for the coming year for our Lifelong Learning as well as Religious School and I look forward to partnering with her to make Torah come to life whenever and however we can! We welcome Debi, and her husband Alan, whom I have known by name for years as he is one of the co-founders of a significant and innovative Jewish publishing house called Torah Aura.

Secondly, hard hats go on in late July and into August on a few significant projects in the Education Building. Some are structural. Some are for security. But the most visible difference will be transforming the “Beit Knesset” into “The Lamed Center.” I remember when I was brand new with the congregation and the Education Building was being torn up. We had to decide what to call the old sanctuary. We settled on “Beit Knesset” because that word means “Synagogue” and literally means “House of Gathering.” We felt that given the nature of what that room would be and how it had been used, that name would capture the variety of reasons we would be in the room. And indeed, over the last seventeen (!!!) years, we have gathered in that room for prayer, study, and meeting. From board meetings to preschool Shabbat, environmental movies to religious school dancing, Havayah sleepovers to the splitting of the sea for the Israelites, that space is one of the most used on our property. But in 2001, smartboards didn’t exist yet and a drop-down screen with a ceiling-mounted projector would not have been available for this kind of application. From lighting to seating, this room is about to change dramatically as, with permission and direction from Linda and Steve Block, we take the fund named in memory of their beloved Robyn and Michael, who passed away in 1997 and use it to create a space that will be for learning, laughing, and living in loving memory of them. We will call the room “The Lamed Center” given the centrality of that Hebrew letter and its meaning, in words that have to do with teaching and learning.

Judaism doesn’t take the summer off … nor do we around our building! Though I will be travelling a bit and look forward to sharing what I learn during my time away, particularly in Israel. I wish you all a wonderful and meaningful summer. Please help me welcome Debi and Alan and when the summer is over, we will have much to embrace with the new year!

B’Shalom,
Rabbi Mark

“A Priest and a Rabbi Walk into a Bar …”
It’s Torah and Testament on Tap! And that’s no joke!

To accommodate the large crowds and to make the experience more pleasant for guests and wait staff, we will continue to offer two seatings at 6:00 PM AND 8:30 PM. Please note: your entire party must be present before being seated.

DEBI ROWE, DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION

New Beginnings

I am tremendously excited to become part of the Temple Emanuel family, and am eager to meet each of you. Already I have enjoyed planning with Rabbi Mark, Cynthia Silber, Jenn Rosen, Andy Meltzer and others so that our children can strengthen their Jewish identity, explore their connection with the Divine, celebrate Jewish life and Torah, and be a force for healing and justice in the world.

As I think about all the forces in the universe that brought me to Temple Emanuel, it’s almost not surprising that I have ended up here. Throughout my life, my family moved a lot; as the child of a rabbi early in his career, it was hardly surprising. I was raised in smaller towns in the Midwest, and truly came to value the communities that always felt like extended family.

I also had the good fortune to spend twelve summers at the URJ camp in Wisconsin, Olin-Sang-Ruby Union Institute. There I made life-long friends, learned how to water ski, sail a boat, milk a cow, all under the umbrella of Jewish community with many rabbis as trusted leaders and friends. I have continued my father’s legacy spending many summers on the faculty of URJ Camp Newman in California, and helping campers learn and have fun as I did. As they say at Camp Newman, “I love being Jewish!” Being involved in Jewish education in all its forms and varieties has been like breathing to me throughout my life.

I was recently asked “If you were to join a synagogue as a congregant, what would you look for in a rabbi and in educational opportunities?” So I said that I would want my rabbi to be knowledgeable, friendly, able to meet people where they are, affable, and a bit funny. I have begun to learn that Rabbi Mark is just that! I believe that educational opportunities should be available for people at all ages and stages of their lives. What I’ve learned and experienced about Temple Emanuel’s Religious School and adult educational opportunities are indeed just that. I was delighted to see happy engaged children when I visited in March, I was energized to be challenged during Torah Study on Shabbat morning, and couldn’t have been made to feel more welcome.

My husband Alan and I eagerly look forward to becoming part of the Temple Emanuel community and to forge connections with all of you.

B’Shalom,
Debi

FOCUS ON REFUGEES BY TEMPLE EMANUEL

The Good Neighbor Team (GNT) for the family of Adaya Masamba, Aline Aza and Mariam Muhima and her children who arrived in February, 2017 learned on May 22 that Adaya’s mother Tina Ceusi and siblings Raphael, Ismail, Lilianne and Blandine Masamba were arriving on June 7 from Burundi where they have lived since 2002 when they fled the Democratic Republic of Congo. The GNT, consisting of Temple members and Knollwood Baptist Church members, joined by members of each congregation went into action to obtain donations of furniture, household goods, kitchen supplies, linens, clothes and everything needed to make a home. There was a joyful reunion of the family at Piedmont Triad International Airport before they were driven to their new home and served a meal by the GNT.

The new family has already completed the necessary forms for Social Services, ESL enrollment, Health Department screening and program orientation by World Relief. They have assisted acculturating the newcomers with daily life in America and orientation to culture in our community. World Relief is working on employment and transportation to work for Tina and Raphael and the GNT will assist in enrolling the other children in school for the fall. The family is excited and highly motivated about building a life in our community.

HOW YOU CAN HELP:

- Volunteer with transportation to doctor appointments, job interviews, school related activities
- Volunteer to tutor 16 and 14 year olds during the school year or help with homework
- Volunteer to help with English language tutoring for adults and children
- Donate to Social Action Refugee Resettlement Fund to help with unforeseen expenses, obtaining a vehicle in the future, and Green Card application in one year
- Join the Good Neighbor Team to help this family over the next 6 months become adapted to life in America. GNT Members: Temple Emanuel: Adrienne and Herb Spindel, Mike Green, Margot Lobree, Jean Fromson and from KBC: Annette Westmoreland, Dean Clifford, Janet Ray

THANK YOU to all our congregants and their friends for the generous donations of time (especially Jeff Lerner for picking up and delivering furniture), money, furniture and household goods that made this dream of resettlement a reality for another refugee family.

2018 TZEDAKAH CAN CAMPAIGN GOAL OF $2,000.00

Temple Emanuel has always been a faith community that stands for social justice for all and especially those in our community who face challenges in their daily lives obtaining food, housing, medicine, employment and other basic needs. Our rabbi leads the way with his words and his actions in our temple and in our community giving us the spiritual mandate to help create a world overflowing with justice, compassion and peace. We can turn our values into actions by supporting organizations in our community who act to restore dignity to those losing hope due to homelessness, food insecurity, unemployment and prejudice. Turn your loose change into a tool for achieving these goals by filling your tzedakah cans and returning them on the High Holy Days. That is just $7.14 per family to reach our goal!!

This month we highlight Veterans Helping Veterans Heal (VH VH). Read how this organization helps the more than 300 veterans who are homeless in Forsyth County each year.

PRESCHOOL

After a lovely end to our school year, with a beautiful graduation for our four year olds, led by Rabbi Mark and their teacher Alex Toledo, and ending with a fabulous magic show from the Amazing Andy; we once again celebrated the end of the year with a potluck picnic at Hathaway Park, with great weather, and wonderful food.

We then have immediately dove into our Summer Fun program. Our first week was spent making t-shirts, and a lot of water play outside to try and beat the heat. The rest of the summer will focus on ‘crazy’ art and science projects, with an emphasis on things that we can recycle, or that we can find in nature. It’s a good way for children to learn about how things work, and how to take care of our world, in a fun and child-centered manner.

THE MAVENS (Senior Programming)

The Mavens, the senior group of the temple, for those 55 years or older welcomes new members. Join us for our “Lunch and Learn” events, usually held the 2nd Thursday of the month at 12 noon, often preceded by Chair Yoga at 11:00 AM. We enjoy our brown-bag lunch with drinks and desserts provided. Lunch is followed by interesting programs planned thanks to our Program Coordinator, Susan Surman. This is a time to socialize and increase our general knowledge of many interesting subjects.

Upcoming Programs:

- Thursday, July 12, 10:30 AM - Field Trip to IFB Solutions (formerly Industries for the Blind). University Plaza Shopping Center at 7730 North Point Blvd, Winston-Salem, NC 271 Join The Mavens for a special event - a tour of this important organization in our community. Lunch will be provided following the tour. To carpool, please be at temple by 10:00 AM. Please RSVP to mavens@templeemanuelws.com

Please join us! If you are not a Maven, now is the time to join the senior group of Temple Emanuel. Annual dues of $18, payable to The Mavens, can be sent to temple.

For more information contact Herb Spindel at mavens@templeemanuelws.com or call him at 336-293-6604.
