FUNDRAISING - TRADITION OF GIVING
Our fundraising efforts have just begun, and we’ve already increased our goal from 75% participation from the congregation to 80%. As you have probably heard, we are concentrating on getting more of us involved financially in Temple Emanuel, at whatever level feels good to each of us individually. There are many reasons to give. Here is one person’s story:

“I grew up in L.A. in a predominantly Jewish neighborhood, where we had dozens of synagogues and a variety of Jewish cultural and educational institutions nearby. As an adult in the DC metro area, there were several synagogues within an easy drive and three Jewish community centers to choose from. When I moved to Winston-Salem to many Marcus in 2008, I understood that being a part of a Jewish community was very important to me. I worried that I would not have a temple nearby. Thank God, we do! Temple Emanuel is our ONE center of Jewish life in Winston-Salem. It is our ONLY center of Jewish life. For that, dayenu. But there’s more. We have a wonderful, welcoming congregation; a talented caring rabbi; a dedicated staff and a great group of committed volunteers. I give to Temple Emanuel because it’s my Jewish home. I want to see Temple Emanuel thrive throughout my life and beyond. I give because Temple Emanuel belongs to me. To us. To all of us.”

—Claudia Zorn Schaefer, Fundraising Committee Member

If you have a story to share, please let us know. We hope that you can help inspire others to give as well!

Stay tuned for information on our upcoming Casino Night, scheduled for April 27, 2019.  Email me If you are interested in helping on the Casino committee.

Fringes

It is first said in Numbers 15:37 and then repeated in Deuteronomy 22:12 that the children of Israel are commanded to wear tzitziyot, fringes, on the four corners of their garments, and you shall look upon them and remember the commandments of YHVH, and do them.

I love my tallit. I love the tree of life design in the center of my tallit. I love the bling sewn throughout the garment that makes it sparkle...and that ultimately leaves a lasting memory of where I was sitting during services when sequins fall gently to the floor. I love the feel of it around my shoulders as I sing the prayers. And I especially love to twirl the fringes. I remember Rabbi Mark once saying that not only are we commanded to wear fringes as a reminder of the 613 mitzvot but that the fringes remind us to take care of those who live on the fringe.

Based on our congregational demographic survey, 54% of our members are households of 2 adults, 25% are households of 1 adult and the remaining 21% are either affiliate or student members. Last year, 49% of our members requested some type of financial relief. Currently, Temple Emanuel is composed of approximately 270 family units. Even if all 270 family units were households of 2 adults paying their recommended annual dues, our revenue from dues would still fall $17,000 short of covering just our personnel expenses.

Since taking on the responsibilities of Board President, I catch myself twirling the fringes on my tallit thinking about those in our community who are living on the fringe. I twirl my fringes wondering how we will remain financially healthy so that we can continue to have a meaningful presence in Winston Salem. I twirl my fringes worrying if we have the funds to repair the 15 year old HVAC unit if it were to stop working. I twirl my fringes and worry if there will be a time I will be unable to support an amazing program solely because we lack the necessary funds. I twirl my fringes.

The Tradition of Giving campaign was started approximately 5 years ago as a fundraising event to help make up the difference in covering our expenses that are not covered by our dues. Our wish is that 100% of our membership will participate, independent of what you can contribute. Just think, if all 270 family units contributed chai ($18), that would generate enough revenue to cover the salaries of our Madrachim...or the cost of supplies for the preschool...or the cost of postage. If all 270 family units contributed double chai ($36), that would cover the costs associated with our High Holy Day music...or the cost of police security...or the cost of garbage removal. If all 270 family units contributed triple chai ($54), that would provide sufficient funds to cover our technology expenses...or the salaries of our religious school teachers...or the cost of我们的 landscaping.

Will you join me by putting on your tallit, twirling your fringes and thinking about how you can help contribute to the Tradition of Giving Campaign? Let this be the year we hit 100% participation. On behalf of the Board of Governors, I thank you.

Standing tall, and together, for what is right

Storytelling is what we do as Jews. The approach of Hanukkah signals yet another story that illustrates the adage that “Jewish holidays can be boiled down to: They tried to kill us, we fought back, let’s eat.” Okay – definitely not ALL Jewish holidays but certainly Hanukkah, Purim, and Pesach. Well … let us not forget those holidays also have to do with finding God’s presence in our lives, working through tragedy toward redemption, and exploring the role of humanity’s capability to inflict evil and intolerance on other populations. How much we need this story again after the events in Pittsburgh.

The story of Hanukkah is real. And while some of the stories related to Hanukkah may be fanciful and designed to teach larger lessons and morals (Did you hear the one about the elephant? How about the jar of oil?), the overarching themes of the central story and the historical realities of what occurred in the second century BCE should cause us to do what the best stories do: REFLECT and ACT accordingly.

When an oppressive regime comes along and uses all of its powers to change a more tolerant and accepting world, it is time to rise up and lift our voices in protest. The Israelite slaves in Egypt, the Jews in Persia, the Jews in Judaea and Samaria – each era faced its horror or potential horror. Each generation faced the need to cry out. And it was only when they cried, protested, fought, waged a battle did the necessary change come about. And that battle led to freedom, safety, and redemption. So whether the injustices of an increasingly less tolerant Supreme Court or missiles fired indiscriminately into Israel, we have no choice but to speak out and rise against forces that threaten our lives: whether Jewish, immigrant, Black, LGBTQ …

We live in an era of increasing in-fighting and out-fighting. The story of Hanukkah is not just about the Maccabees against the Seleucids and King Antiochus. The story of Hanukkah is also about the Maccabees fighting fellow Jews. We love to hold up the menorah as our symbol of religious tolerance and dedication to Jewish life. But the Maccabees were religious zealots who had little patience for those who disagreed with them. Jews who assimilated and/or showed a lack of Jewish commitment were not just shunned but potentially killed by their own. Considering how some in the ultra-orthodox community view non-orthodox, there is a religious zeal and piety that is potentially deadly for those who disagree.

When leadership from the top speaks in half-truths or blatant lies, when those in positions of power begin advocating for their views of society without an appreciation of minorities, when laws are created that endanger lives, we must remember our people’s stories and reflect on their central messages … and act accordingly. Hanukkah brings a story and a message of dedication: To what are you dedicated at this season? For what do you need to stand? Chag sameach!

B’Shalom,
Rabbi Mark

DEBI ROWE, DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION

Education and Rededication—Both Part of Hanukkah

Over the years I have written many articles about the confluence of the Hebrew words for “education” and “rededication”—the later referring to the work of the Maccabees in the Temple in Jerusalem. Given my chosen profession, I love the fact that Hanukkah (meaning “dedication”) is also connected linguistically with hinukh “education”!

Hanukkah is traditionally a minor festival on our annual calendar... an observance not even mentioned in the Hebrew Bible. We only find mention of Hanukkah in the Talmud, Tractate Shabbat, or in Macabbees I and II, writings found only in the Catholic biblical canon.

In the Talmud, Tractate Shabbat, only three lines are devoted to the events of Hanukkah while three pages detail when, where, and how the Hanukkah lights should be lit. Completed approximately 600 years after the events of the Maccabees, the Talmud contains the extant version of the famous story of the miraculous jar of oil that burned for eight days.

Our ancestors were determined to maintain their identities as Jews in a world dominated by Greek cultural influences. In a very real sense, we are in a similar position to that of our forebears. We do not live in a world dominated by an evil tyrant trying to prevent us from worshipping as Jews. We do, however, live in a dominant culture that is not a Jewish one. The dominant American/Western culture has many attractions that claim our attention, many choices that shape decisions about how we use our time.

In the book of I Maccabees, we read, “And so observe from generation to generation, that none who put their trust in God will lack strength...” Our ancestors knew that dedication to the practices of their ancestral religion would keep them steady and grounded in an often-unfriendly world. The dedication I see from the members of our congregation reveals the same truth. By consecrating ourselves to the goals of our synagogue and school, by making the practices of our ancestral religion central in our lives, we, too, will remain steady and grounded in our world.

Lessons from the historical events upon which we might reflect:

- If you truly believe in something strongly, fight for it with determination and community support. God will be with you.
- Sometimes the “little guy” can win over the “big strong army” because his or her faith is stronger than the sword “Not by might, not by power, but by thy spirit alone shall all people live in peace.” (Zechariah 4:6).
- Sometimes things happen without scientific or logical explanation. If we stick together as a community and focus our faith on goodness, we can accomplish great things.

In Israel, the traditional greeting for the holiday is “Hag Orim Sa-me-ah”— “Happy Festival of Lights”. May your family be especially blessed by the light of the hanukiyah this year and may you delight in the quiet joy that light at this darkest time of the year can bring.

L’Shalom, Debi

SOCIAL ACTION AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

The mission for the Social Action Committee (SAC) has always been one of Tikkun Olam - repairing the world. Our members seek to raise awareness, to educate and to mobilize the congregation concerning issues of social justice. Become involved in our work by contributing ideas and volunteering for initiatives.

Upcoming SAC meetings: Sundays, 9:00 AM in the Library, November 18 and December 16.

Please share your thoughts or questions by email with me. Jean Fromson, Social Action Committee Chair

The CROP Hunger Walk held on October 21 was a great success with $1,400 raised by the Temple Emanuel team of 8 walkers. That placed us in the top 10 money-raising teams in WSFC who together raised $34,000 to help end hunger here and around the world. Crisis Control Ministry and Sunnyside Ministries in Winston Salem will receive 25% of that money to help our neighbors in Forsyth County who have food insecurity. Thanks to everyone who donated and walked in this year’s hunger awareness walk. You can still contribute to this year’s campaign until November 21 by going to www.tinyurl.com/TE2018CROP.

The High Holy Days Food Drive collection usually benefits only the Food Pantry at Crisis Control Ministry. In 2018, the collection was expanded to provide help to victims of Hurricane Florence for human and pet food. East Coast evacuees took home donations which equated to 2 giant bins of food. Crisis Control Ministry still received 4 giant bins for food, only 500 pounds less than 2017. Monetary donations supplemented the donation of food to CCM.

The High Holy Days Tzedakah Can Drive collected $1251.25 (average of $4.47 per member family) which was a 50% increase from last year. The Social Action Committee voted to equally distribute the funds collected this year among the following four community organizations in the amount of $325.00 per organization. A total of $1,300 will be distributed, with the balance of $48.75 coming from the Social Action Fund: Habitat for Humanity, Veterans Helping Veterans Heal, The Shalom Project, and Second Harvest Food Bank. Thanks to all who helped Temple Emanuel take its place in the community by supporting our neighbors in need of food, clothing, shelter and of restoration of a life of dignity.

We hope your family will start collecting now for the 2019 Tzedakah Can Drive by pledging to donate $1.00/month to your Tzedakah can so that we can continue pursuing social justice in our community.

In Solidarity and Support...

We are grateful for the outpouring of love, compassion, and humanity shown by our friends and neighbors during these horrific times. Over 600 people filled Temple Emanuel on Monday, October 29, 2018 for a community vigil. Links to comments from some speakers and well-wishers, as well as news coverage: Rabbi Mark Cohn, Governor Roy Cooper, US Senator Richard Burr, US Senator Thom Tillis, US Representative Virginia Foxx, Winston-Salem Journal article and Photo Gallery.

We were greeted with signs and hugs on Friday, November 2 by throngs of well-wishers from around our community, many who filled our Sanctuary for “Show Up for Shabbat” Services. Wishing us all peace, tolerance, and hope.

SISTERHOOD

A Message from Sisterhood President Jackie Friedman

September was a busy month for Sisterhood! We were happy to host the Yom Kippur break-the-fast that was well attended by Temple Emanuel members, hurricane evacuees, and local college students. Our opening reception was held in late September, for the first time at Temple Emanuel. It was a lovely event that allowed members to socialize after the rush of the High Holy Days.

Get ready for cold weather and raise funds for Sisterhood! Order deadline: November 18. $10 for each freezer-ready quart. You can also donate soup to the Moore School Food Pantry. Order online or paper order form.

Volunteers needed on Sunday mornings in November to prepare soup for the sale. Pick-up your soup on Sunday, December 9 during the Hanukkah celebration.

Speaking of Hanukkah, please keep our Gift Shop in mind for gift items and for wrapping paper and cards - open every Sunday morning through Hanukkah. Please email Adrienne Spindel for special orders.

Thank you for your continued support! If you have not yet joined Sisterhood for 2018-2019, please do so online through ChaverWeb or by mailing a check and completed form to Temple Sisterhood.

MEMBERSHIP

It was wonderful to reconnect with so many folks during the High Holy Days. Thanks for stopping by our Welcome Table to say hello. We welcome newly interested people to Temple Emanuel and continue to help current members find their way in our temple events and occasions. For 2018-19, the Membership Committee is expanding. We, along with the Board, are developing a team approach to extend welcoming greetings to everyone. We feel everyone at Temple Emanuel is a member of the membership committee. We welcome referrals, ideas for having fun, and ways to improve connections to our Second Jewish home.

If you know anyone who is interested in learning more about Temple Emanuel or if they need a refresher about who we are, then please send them to us.

We hope to continue spreading the enthusiasm we feel about Temple Emanuel to everyone.

Kim Hobin, Vice President of Membership
Lori Baydush, Membership Committee Member

THE MAVENS (Senior Programming)

The Mavens of Temple Emanuel are moving forward with increased membership and exciting programs.

Our October Lunch and Learn event was an exciting discussion of our present political atmosphere, led by our own Leonard Clein.

On October 19, we celebrated Shabbat with the congregation and local Jewish college students at part of our L'Dor V'dor program, partially funded by a grant from the BJ H Foundation for Jewish Seniors.

We look forward to welcoming Jewish seniors age 55 and over to our upcoming programs held Thursdays:

- November 8: A return visit from Attorney Helen Parsonage discussing “Immigrants in Winston-Salem: An Update.” Her specialty is immigration and deportation law.
- December 6: A celebration of Hanukkah with a luncheon and entertainment.
- January 10: Film: The Last Klezmer. The life and music of Leopold Kozlowski.
- February 14: Guest speaker Helen Etterwill discuss the 5 zones in the world where people live to 100+ with minimal illness.
- March 14: Guest speaker Scott Gillentine will speak about his foundation that actively lobbies to improve dietary guidelines.

Socialization, comradely, and informative programs are our objective. We invite all those 55+ to join us. You are always invited to attend a Lunch and Learn event and participate with The Mavens. For more information contact Herb Spindel at 704-301-1714 or spindlct@aol.com.

Preschool had a wild and wonderful beginning to our school year. With the High Holy Days on us so early, the children were busy learning about our holy days, making crafts, and especially enjoying our time in the sukkah!

Now we are having fun enjoying our fall art projects. The recent cool weather allows us to actually see the fall leaves we have been talking about!

SISTERHOOD GIFT SHOP

We are ready for Hanukkah! Open every Sunday through December 9, by appointment, or during office hours. Menorahs, candles, gelt, dreidels, gift wrap, and gift items. Free Hanukkah ribbon with every purchase. Don’t see what you need? Contact Adrienne Spindel to view catalogs for special items. Call 704-301-1866 or email.

Joel Friedman - January 5, 2019

Joel Friedman will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on January 5, 2019. Joel is the son of Adam and Jackie Friedman, and older brother to John and Adam James Friedman. Joel is currently in the 7th grade at Thomas Jefferson Middle School, where he is a manager on the baseball team and plays baritone in the band. Outside of school, Joel is a member of the Boy Scouts, plays baseball, and enjoys gaming with friends.

Joel has attended religious school at Temple Emanuel since kindergarten and is thankful for the support and teaching from all of the teachers and madrichim that have made this day possible. He is particularly thankful for the endless hours of patient tutoring and study with Mike Backfield and Rabbi Mark Cohn. Joel and his family invite all Temple Emanuel members to the Kiddush Luncheon following the Shabbat services on Saturday, January 5.
