BOARD BRIEFS

The following actions were taken by the Board of Governors during the January, 2017 meeting:

- Discussed collecting demographic information to get a base-line snapshot of who we are as a congregation
- Celebrated the success of the Tradition of Giving campaign
- Continued our discussion of the importance of building personal connections and possible strategies for doing this as a congregation.

The following actions* were taken by the Board of Governors during the February, 2017 meeting:

- Applauded the successes of the recent Adult Education programs, the Kosher Gospel Fundraising evening, and the Sisterhood Bingo Night, and respectively thanked Courtney Anthony, Mindy Bloom, and Sisterhood for their hard work
- Approved the hiring of a part-time receptionist, made possible by a requested adjustment to her hours by our bookkeeper, Diane Deal (Diane will now be working Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9:00 AM - 2:30 PM)
- Approved the hiring of a new assistant custodian (Kristal Colector) to replace a previous hire.
- Approved the acceptance of the following gifts: a Havdalah set and menorah donated by Claudia Zorn Shafer, and a chuppah frame donated by Matt Rosencrance.
- Approved the expenditure necessary to overhaul and upgrade our irrigation system

* pending approval of the minutes at the next Board meeting

On Standing Up

Dear Congregants:

I admit that day-to-day, it's been hard for me to feel settled lately. I go about our temple business and my own personal life while political decisions are made seemingly without my input. Posting on Facebook and complaining to friends doesn't feel very effective—probably because it's my own Jewish version of “preaching to the choir.”

But when I watch, read, or click on the (ahem) “news” lately, I am both proud and reassured by the fact I'm a card-carrying member of the Winston-Salem Jewish Community.

As the only congregation in town, we're more than a temple. We're a religious group, college class, service club, and a social club too. We embrace our mission of being Winston-Salem's Jewish home for worship, study and gathering. And even though we are a diverse group that more than occasionally disagrees, we speak with one confident voice when it comes to standing up and representing what's right and just.

We have 5,000 years of experience, a reliable guide book (the Torah), and a great spiritual leader in Rabbi Mark Cohn.

Because of Rabbi Mark's leadership and our Social Action Committee, our Winston-Salem Jewish Community speaks with a voice of fairness, kindness, generosity, and Jewish ideals. We have each other's backs—and the backs of others who suffer from discrimination, poverty, illness, or simply being born in the wrong place at the wrong time. No matter what's happening in Winston-Salem City Hall, Washington, D.C., or throughout the world, we know that Temple Emanuel stays true to our teachings and our values. I'm so proud to be a part of a community that tries so hard to stand for what's fair and kind—for ourselves and our world.

This sense of responsibility is something that Temple Emanuel does very well as will again be demonstrated on March 19 as we support our annual Erica Wolfe Mitzvah Day, an event where our entire congregation comes together to help our community. Dr. Ron Wolfson, the author of my temple president guide book, Relational Judaism, tells us that “you can make decisions on your own about how to be Jewish, but then a truly engaged Jew feels a responsibility beyond the self.” I believe that the definition of community is exactly what we think about and DO on Mitzvah Day.

If you need more examples of how we can be proud of our community, think of our two refugee families (one from Syria and one from the Congo), the Moore School Food Pantry, our work with Habitat for Humanity, and our continued involvement in social justice activities in our community. Think of how hard our members work to help others and reach out to each other in times of need.

And think of how we've gathered as a community over the past couple of months--in the name of Judaism, our congregation, and for just plain fun. We've attended marches, classes, meetings, funerals, weddings, Hanukkah celebration, Sisterhood Bingo Night, the Kosher Gospel Fundraiser and so much more.

At times like these, I'm more proud than ever of how we stand together as members of Temple Emanuel, our Jewish community, and mostly importantly, concerned citizens of this world. Thanks to all of you for standing with me.

Felice

membership

Many wonderful new members have joined our congregation and are getting involved in temple activities. We are so happy they are a part of our community. The “unofficial” Temple Emanuel membership committee includes all of us! If you meet people or know any potential members who are interested in learning more about our Jewish community, please email me. I am also happy to contact anyone directly if that is preferred. Let's keep working together to welcome new, and potential, members to Temple Emanuel.

Jennifer Grosswald, Membership Chair

Rabbi Mark D. Cohn

On the Friday night of January 27, before Kaddish, I spoke about the fact that it was International Holocaust Remembrance Day. Jews and non-Jews alike, across the globe, remembered the horrors that took millions of lives and brought humanity to its darkest levels, perhaps ever.

I spoke of the 6,000,000 Jews who were killed and the 5,000,000 non-Jews who were killed. Jews killed simply for being Jews. Gays, Lesbians, Roma, Gypsies, Political Dissidents, Physically-disabled ... put to horrible and unimaginable deaths simply because of how they looked, what they believed, who they were.

The White House, as it customarily does, issued a statement on this day which commemorates the horrors of the Holocaust and is timed to remember the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz – the death camp that consumed hundreds of thousands of lives – principally, mainly and almost fully Jewish lives.

This year, the White House made no mention of Jews.

This year, the White House made no mention of the millions of willing executioners.

This year, the White House made no mention of the Final Solution. This year, the White House made no mention of the target of the horror.

As Elie Wiesel (of blessed memory) so aptly put: All the victims were not Jewish but all Jews were victims. When asked to respond to the lack of mentioning of Jews, the White House replied that they were trying to be inclusive.

That same White House was not so inclusive the next day when it shut our nations doors to refugees fleeing horrible persecution and travelers with legitimate travel visas including Christians and Muslims who simply were coming to these shores to work and teach and live.

Some have criticized the White House's statement as a pandering, a provocation, a nod to those who deny the Holocaust and the numbers and the foundational core of the Nazis, which was to exterminate the Jews. I simply do not know. But inclusivity is best done by naming what and who you are including. And inclusivity is best done by practicing it authentically and consistently.

Imagine the amazement in my mind as I wrote these words on a Friday morning before services for that night. Mid-day, a colleague of mine from Wake Forest Baptist Church came to my office to deliver a letter. The text of and the letter appear to the right. How remarkable that within one day – I had expressed my feelings about President Trump's failure to use International Holocaust Day as a chance to remember the prime and principal victims of the atrocities and unbeknownst to me, a local partner of ours had already understood and with her congregation several days before, prepared a letter for us. I am so grateful because while there were millions who allowed the Holocaust to happen, I believe today there are millions who are standing up for justice and understanding and peace.

May we work with one another to be genuinely inclusive, compassionate, intentional, and soulful to create a world of peace, safety and security for one and all.

Bivracha,
Rabbi Mark

January, 2017 Letter from Wake Forest Baptist Church

Dear Rabbi Cohn,

We at Wake Forest Baptist Church in Winston-Salem want you to know that we were shocked and saddened that the presidential statement marking the Holocaust Remembrance Day omitted any reference to Jews. We are also angered by recent anti-Semitic hate crimes in our nation.

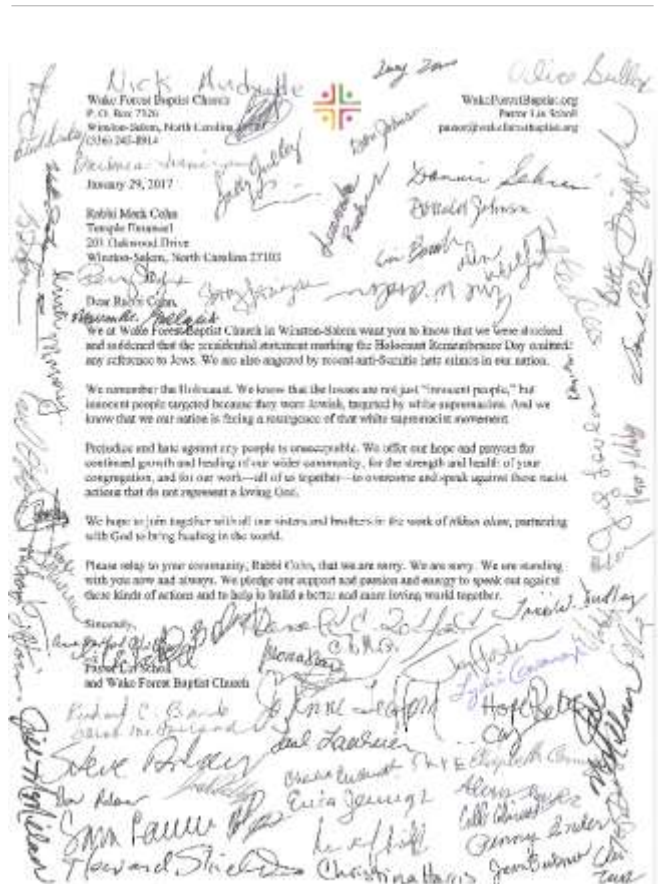

We remember the Holocaust. We know that the losses are not just "innocent people," but innocent people targeted because they were Jewish, targeted by white supremacists. And we know that our nation is facing a resurgence of that white supremacist movement.

Prejudice and hate against any people is unacceptable. We offer our hope and prayers for continued growth and healing of our wider community, for the strength and health of your congregation, and for our work – all of us together – to overcome and speak against these racist actions that do not represent a loving God.

We hope to join together with all our sisters and brothers in the work of tikkun olam, partnering with God to bring healing in the world.

Please relay to your community, Rabbi Cohn, that we are sorry. We are sorry. WE are standing with you now and always. We pledge our support and passion and energy to speak out against these kinds of actions and to help to build a better and more loving world together.

Sincerely,
Pastor Lia Scholl and Wake Forest Baptist Church

DON'T MISS REVITALIZED ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Over the past two months we enjoyed some great educational programming for adults, and we have more new and exciting opportunities coming up soon! Here is a recap followed by details about our upcoming programs:

In January I had the pleasure of studying William Shakespeare's The Merchant of Venice with a group of enthusiastic adult learners. We explored some key passages from the text of the play, which features the famous Jewish character of Shylock, and then we screened and discussed a dvd recording of the play filmed at Shakespeare's Globe in London. Thank you to everyone who participated – I am grateful that I had the opportunity to share one of my favorite works of literature with you!

In February we enjoyed a series of educational presentations filmed on site at the 92nd Street Y in New York City. The YMHA offers some of the best Jewish programming in the country, and makes it available across North America through online streaming and dvds. The programs we viewed and discussed at Temple Emanuel covered the history of Jewish resorts in the Catskills; Living Well and Aging well with Rabbis Harold Kusher and Rachel Cowan; and a fascinating exploration of the global issue of religious violence with Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks. Many sincere thanks to Ed Abraham and Norma-May Isakow for generously sponsoring this wonderful series at Temple Emanuel!

If you weren't able to attend The Merchant of Venice or the 92nd Street Y series, don't worry! This spring, we are offering several new sessions on the theme of "What Does It Mean To Be Jewish?" Please add the following dates to your calendar:

Tuesday, March 28 at 7:00 PM

Screening and Discussion of the film Left Luggage with Renata Jackson from UNCSA

In this 1998 film starring Isabella Rossellini, a young, secular Jewish woman gets a job as a nanny for a Hasidic family and becomes close to them.

Thursday, April 13 at 7:00 PM

Discussion of the book I Am Jewish: Personal Reflections Inspired by the Last Words of Daniel Pearl

In this collection of essays, Jewish Americans from all backgrounds reflect on the last words of journalist Daniel Pearl, who was killed by Al-Qaeda terrorists.

Thursday, May 4 at 7:00 PM

Choosing a Jewish Life: People Who Have Converted to Judaism Share Their Stories

Members of our community who have converted to Judaism will share their personal stories, then take questions. This is a great opportunity to learn about the conversion process and get to know some fellow temple members better!

I look forward to learning with you soon!

Courtney

Religious School Students have fun learning at wherever they are!

Social Action Committee

The mission for the Social Action Committee has always been one of Tikkun Olam- repairing the world. Its members seek to raise awareness, to educate and to mobilize the congregation concerning issues of social justice. We welcome new members with ideas and passion to change our community and our world. Please engage yourselves in one of our initiatives or help us develop solutions to pressing problems in our community. Join us at our regular meeting time of 9:00 AM on the second Sunday of the month in the Bride's Room (March 12 and April 9) or email us your thoughts or questions to socialaction@templemanuelws.com.

Helping Refugees Resettle in Winston-Salem

Our Torah teaches us, "The stranger who resides with you shall be to you as one of your citizens; you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt" (Leviticus 19:34). Those of us on Temple Emanuel's second Good Neighbor Team, along with members of Knollwood Baptist Church, have recently been given the opportunity to fulfill this mitzvah, as we welcomed a Congolese refugee family to Winston-Salem on February 15. The family, which consists of three young women and a one-year-old boy, is getting settled and they are very happy to be here. The Good Neighbor team will share any opportunities to help the family either by donating needed items or volunteering, so please stay tuned if you are interested in helping out!

Monetary donations to support this initiative can be made to the Social Action Fund, please note "Refugee Resettlement Program" in the memo field of your check or in the Tribute field online.

Moore school food pantry

Since the start of the 2016-2017 school year, the pantry has provided food for an average of 41 families representing 169 family members per month. We provided frozen turkeys in November and December.

We are grateful for the generous contributions we have received:

- Frozen homemade soup (45 quarts) from the Sisterhood
- Over 300 pounds of canned fruits and vegetables and boxes of personal items (shampoo and other hair products, baby items, toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap) from Moore Magnet Elementary School
- Children's books from Temple Preschool families. Families get to select books for their children when they shop at the pantry.
- Over 100 cans of fruits and vegetables from the Ronald McDonald House.

We also thank our donors and volunteers for their time staffing the food pantry and for their continued support. If you wish more information, please email Bob Schwartz.

Mentoring Opportunity!!

Moore Elementary School needs volunteer mentors for some of their students. This would involve helping the student with a subject or talking with the student about certain issues or behaviors they are exhibiting at school. All volunteers will receive an orientation. The frequency could be once a week or every other week for 30-45 minutes. No training is required, but all volunteers must complete the Winston-Salem Forsyth County School volunteer screening application. Contact the temple office to receive a fact sheet with additional information.

Thank you, Bob Schwartz

2016 Habitat for Humanity Unity Build

Another successful Habitat for Humanity Unity Build home has been completed and was dedicated on Saturday, February 5, 2017. Alice Everett and her three children will move into their new home soon. Temple Emanuel proudly added its name with twelve other faith organizations that contributed financing and labor to build the Everett family's home. This is the sixth Unity Build since 2000, and another is in the planning stages for 2017.

The Unity Build offers opportunities for houses of worship, organizations, and residents with different personal histories, experiences, and walks of faith to work together toward a common, worthwhile goal.

Morgan Grace Callicutt - March 25, 2017

Morgan will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, March 25, 2017. All congregants are invited to the Kiddush Luncheon immediately following services.

Morgan is the daughter of Bob and Beverly Callicutt and the sister of Aimee Callicutt. Morgan is in 7th grade at Ledford Middle School in Davidson County. She is an A/B Honor Roll Student and plays the trumpet in the school band, where she was chosen as a soloist for the Music Performance Adjudications (MPA's). Outside of school, Morgan dances at On Stage School of Dance in High Point. She is on Competition Team, where she dances in jazz and tap productions. She also takes classes in ballet, contemporary and is on pointe this year.

The family would like to thank Rabbi Mark Cohn, Courtney Anthony, Bobby Stern and the rest of the religious school teachers for helping her prepare for this special day.

Aidan Matthew Baydush - April 22, 2017

On April 22, 2017, we are proud to announce that our son, Aidan Matthew Baydush, son of Lori and Alan Baydush, will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah. We come from a close-knit family where Aidan has shared the Jewish experience with all of his cousins over the years and now it will be his turn. We are excited to have our out-of-town family visit and share our temple with them.

Our family moved to Winston-Salem in 2004 and joined Temple Emanuel soon after the move. Aidan has been studying with Temple Emanuel religious school since he was 5 years old. He has enjoyed the friendships he has made as well as the teachings of Judaism all along. He recently transferred as a 7th grade student to Summit School and has started with their wrestling team this past year. Wrestling has been a great experience which he is excited to continue next year. Some additional interests include being a member of the Boy Scouts since age 7 and playing the saxophone. Aidan is a very loving son and grandson, and is looking forward to celebrating his Bar Mitzvah with numerous family members and friends.

Please join the family for Friday night services, April 21 at 7:30 PM followed by Oneg Shabbat, and Saturday morning services at 10:00 AM followed by Kiddush Luncheon.

BBYO - B'NAI BRITH YOUTH ORGANIZATION

Neshama BBYO is a Jewish youth group for high school students in the Winston-Salem area. This year, Neshama had a pool party to start off the year. Following the pool party, Neshama participated in Debate Night where members hung out and watched the presidential debate. Neshama is currently planning the Sunday, March 12 Purim Carnival and Spring Cultural, a regional convention that is a fun event open to all students enrolled in BBYO.

Please email Jeff Smith, BBYO adult advisor, with questions.

The Mavens (Senior Programming)

The Mavens is our seniors group for those 55 years or older. Our dynamic membership enjoys a variety of entertaining and educational programs. We usually meet the second Thursday of the month at temple, beginning with chair yoga at 11:00 AM, followed by a Lunch and Learn event at noon. (Note: March 9 Chair Yoga will be at 2:00 PM.) Bring your lunch; dessert and drinks provided. Please send $18 membership dues check to the temple, attention "The Mavens".

Upcoming Programs:

Thursday, March 9 at Temple Emanuel

Our guest speaker will be Michael Calmeyer Hentschel. Michael's father, Hans Calmeyer, was a German lawyer who was posthumously designated a "Righteous Gentile" by Yad Vashem in 1972 for saving at least 3,000 Jews from the Holocaust. Michael reflects on why saving a life should have such spiritual and real significance and what this might mean for our own roles today in furthering the sanctity of life. Click for more information.

NOTE: Chair Yoga on March 9 will begin at 2:00 PM. Please email Neal Haberman if you plan to attend.

Thursday, April 13 at Temple Emanuel

Our guest speaker will be Dr. Don McClain, Associate Dean for Clinical Research for Diabetics at Wake Forest Baptist Hospital and Medical School. He will provide an update on recent Diabetic research projects and their results.

Guests are always welcome to attend. For more information www.templemanuelws.com/mavens

Questions about The Mavens, please email Herb Spindel and Kathie Burton at mavens@templemanuelws.com

Watch for upcoming details: Planning is underway for a new program for The Mavens.

Preschool

Preschool started January with using up three of our five built-in snow days. Here's hoping we don't get too many more storms. Built-in days simply means that I schedule over number of regular school days – for most preschools in town that ranges from 160-165 days. If we don't use them parents get "extra" days. If we use more than five, I then offer make-up days so they still get their basic number of days.

The three and four year old classes made their traditional valentines for Ronald McDonald House guests. We are collecting items for the World Relief refugee family that have recently arrived.

We will also celebrate our traditional Tu B'Shvat seder with Rabbi Mark. Although we avoid tree nuts because of allergies, we enjoy teaching the children about different fruits, and Rabbi does the mixing of juices to help explain the seasons. We also usually plant parsley at this time, so they can see how it grows, as well as to have some to take home for Passover.

2016 Tradition of Giving annual campaign

Thank you to all of the donors to the 2016 Tradition of Giving Annual campaign. We raised over $73,000 to help provide for the future of our congregation. Thank you for providing for the future of Jewish life in Winston-Salem by continuing our tradition of giving, l'dor vador—from generation to generation.

Thanks to the 2016 Tradition of Giving Committee: Frances Brenner, Shari Covitz, Evan Friedel, Beth Mack, Debbie Rubin, Andy Schneider, Eileen Schneider

Please join us to celebrate the successful Tradition of Giving Annual Campaign at the oneg following Kabbalat Shabbat Services on Friday, March 10.
