SHABBAT SCHEDULE

We have made some changes to our Shabbat Services and celebrations.

In June, July, and August, we will still gather to celebrate Shabbat with an early Oneg Shabbat at 5:30 PM, followed by Kabbalat Shabbat Services “in the round” at 6:00 PM.

On the first Friday of each month, we will continue Kabbalat Shabbat Services at 6:00 PM. After nearly 3 years, August 2 will be our last Shabbat Luck Pot Luck dinner. Thank you to all who have contributed to this Shabbat meal and gathering with fellow congregants. Instead of a potluck dinner each month, we will be having periodic Shabbat Dinners (probably 4 to 5) spread throughout the year. The dinner will be sponsored by one of our committees or groups. There will be a cost for the dinner and the net proceeds will support the initiatives of that group. Please join us for our first Shabbat Dinner on September 6 as we welcome Scholar-in-Residence, Rabbi Elana Zaiman, sponsored Lifelong Learning Committee.

From September through May, Friday Kabbalat Shabbat Services will continue to be at 7:30 PM, except on first Friday Shabbat Services at 6:00 PM.

Tot Shabbat Returns to Temple Emanuel
For families with young children, toddlers, and babies.
6:00 - 6:30 PM - Fridays, September 20, October 28, 2019

A monthly Tot Shabbat service will be held on the 3rd Shabbat of each month, September through May. On Tot Shabbat nights, our regular Kabbalat Shabbat service will begin at 7:30 PM as usual.

The High Holy Days are approaching. See Rabbi Mark’s article on page 4 for an Introduction to this year’s theme - LOVE.
Watch for High Holy Day information in the US Mail and in your Inbox.

Selichot - Saturday, Sept 21, evening service
Rosh HaShanah - Sunday, Sept 29; Monday, Sept 30
Rosh HaShanah 2nd Day - Tuesday, Oct 1
Shabbat Shuvah - Friday, Oct 4 - Saturday, Oct 5

Kol Nidre - Tuesday, Oct 8
Yom Kippur - Wednesday, Oct 9
Sukkot - Sunday, Oct 13 - Pizza in the Hut
Simchat Torah Celebration w/ Dan Nichols Sunday, Oct 20

Only 60 days left! As the gates begin to close… The Tzedakah cans will pile up. Don’t forget your 2019 High Holy Days Family Tzedakah Pledge to contribute $1.00/family/month to your Tzedakah can and return it to Temple Emanuel at Yom Kippur. Or you can donate now to Social Action Fund, please note “Tzedakah Can” in the memo line or Tribute Field. Your loose change can change lives.
BOARD BRIEFS

The following actions were taken by the Board of Governors during the May and June meetings:

- Approved new members: David Sack, Ellen Loomis, Chris Hamm, and Sandra McRae.
- Received and discussed the results of the URJ Congregational Benchmarking Survey with our URJ Mentor, Jessica Ingram.
- Strategic Plan: Developed goals and action steps for each of the four pillars.

BOARD MEMBER BIOS:

BOB SCHWARTZ

Bob and Rebecca Schwartz joined Temple Emanuel when they moved from Charlotte to Winston-Salem in 1992. Bob retired from Wake Forest School of Medicine as Emeritus Professor of Pediatrics in 2011, having been Chair of Pediatric Endocrinology for 19 years. Bob started the Moore Food Pantry in 2013 in a partnership with Highland Presbyterian Church, the Second Harvest Food Bank, and Moore Elementary School. Bob and Rebecca have also shown their passion and commitment to Refugee Resettlement efforts. They have been members of a World Relief “Good Neighbor Team,” with other dedicated volunteers from Temple Emanuel and Knollwood Baptist Church, helping and supporting two Syrian refugee families.

Bob joined the Temple Emanuel Board of Governors in 2018 and is now beginning his second year. “I felt that I owed this commitment in honor of my father who had been President of our temple in Lakeland, FL. I have found that the Temple Emanuel Board is a working group of dedicated individuals, who under the leadership of our temple President, Vivian Smith, address important issues and challenges, and make decisions to improve the overall temple organization for the benefit of our members.”

“Rebecca and I have participated in, and hosted, other interfaith couples as part of the temple’s Interfaith Family Outreach Chavurah. The group offers the opportunity to connect, in a non-threatening environment, and discuss shared issues and challenges of being members of interfaith families.

We are also active members of the organization Interfaith Winston-Salem. I have been impressed at how active and respected Rabbi Mark is in the wider Winston-Salem community. I believe that community involvement is very important since Jews are a minority group, and hope that I can play a small role in this effort.”
Wow, this past year has flown by so quickly. I am so grateful for all the hard work the board did to re-envision our strategic plan. I am also grateful for all the work our committees do throughout our organization to make sure we remain operationally sound, create meaningful opportunities for engagement, and give back to our greater community.

This year we are going to pilot a different structure for our board and committee meetings with the focus on collaboration. It was Helen Keller who stated, “Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much.” Currently, the board meets on the first Tuesday of each month and committees meet randomly throughout the year dependent on an upcoming event or initiative. This year the board will meet every other month for 2 hours to allow us time for generative thinking and all committees have been asked to meet on the alternate month at the same time in the same venue. In doing so, our hope is that we will foster cross committee collaboration on special projects such as reinventing our Purim celebration or working together to expand our Yahrzeit Boards, ensure meeting regularity, capture the enthusiasm and talents of our volunteers and cultivate our future leaders.

The URJ document titled Creating Committee and Task Force Charters states that “People join congregations for many reasons. Some join to find spiritual meaning, others community; some join to learn, and still others join because they are looking for a way to share their gifts and connect with the Divine. Many believe bringing their skills and talents to a committee, task force, or volunteer role is a great way to achieve their congregational goals.” It is said that those involved in a congregation’s committees tend to have an increased stake in the temple’s welfare and a greater sense of ownership resulting in a healthier community.

It is imperative that Temple Emanuel’s committees remain strong. Temple Emanuel needs your skills, gifts, talent, creativity, expertise, wisdom, perspective and insight to ensure our relevance in the Winston Salem community. H.E. Lubbock said, “No one can whistle a symphony alone, it takes a whole orchestra to play it.” Will you consider playing in our orchestra? If you are interested in joining a committee, there are three ways you can let us know:

- Call us and we will be happy to talk with you about our committees
- Stop by our committee fair on the first day or Religious School on Aug. 25th
- Come to our first collaborative meeting scheduled for September 3 at 7:00 PM in the Social Hall.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Gratefully,
Vivian Smith, President, Temple Emanuel

Love

Could four letters in either Hebrew or English be simultaneously more complex and simple?

I was sitting in a huge meeting hall last March. A speaker took the platform and began to speak about his new book: “Love Your Enemies.” I thought to myself: That is so much easier said than done! But I listened. And then we all received his book.

I started reading it.
Yeah. It’s really hard to do that whole “love your enemies” business.
But it is so necessary in this day and age.

During the current era, we seem to be dividing ourselves into the camps of love and hate. There are things we love and things we hate. There are people we love and people we hate - even people we love to hate. The causes we love and the causes we hate. And we have entered into a culture of contempt that seeks to undermine our very best interests regardless of whether you love or hate.

Ever in search of a meaningful theme for the High Holy Days, I have decided LOVE will be my theme to carry myself and us through not just those ten majestic and awe-filled days that commence our New Year but ideally take us deep into the New Year itself.

The kind of love of which I am speaking: not the love of pretty flowers and red hearts. I’m talking about love that has as its foundation: obligation, commitment, desire, connection, and eternality. When we define love with that understanding, we realize just how significant love is as a commandment and in terms of improving our world.

Love of your enemy may be hard but is it harder than love of self?
Love of your self may be hard but what about the love of the earth?
Love of the earth may be hard but have you ever tried fully to love of your neighbor?
Love of your neighbor may be hard but let’s go internally and consider: love of Israel (the people and the land).
Love of Israel may be hard but what about when we bring it down to the level of family?

These loves may be hard but when you recognize that responding with love means understanding that to be in relationship means feeling an obligation, commitment, desire, connection, and eternality and thus you are not so quick to walk away. In fact, you realize, when you respond with love, it is a result of having no choice but to stay in that relationship and figure things out … for the sake of everyone involved. But it is a bold risk because in order for it to work fully - the other party must respond similarly.

By the way - that meeting hall last March? The Washington, DC Convention Center hosting the AIPAC Policy Conference. And why was the author, Arthur Brooks, being highlighted? Because if we don’t approach our feelings about one another with love - America and Israel will be in deep trouble. And it starts, literally, with each of us making a commitment to approach the solutions for our world and with one another with love.

Last year, my/our theme was Civil Discourse. Given that theme, and the current political and social climates, it proved important and significant for the whole year and showed up in various programs. And so it will be for Love. What’s love got to do with it? Everything. The High Holy Days are quickly approaching … let’s put love on the agenda.

B’Shalom,
Rabbi Mark
EDUCATION

We are looking forward to starting another year of learning for all ages at Temple Emanuel. Here are some highlights of our Religious School and Lifelong Learning programs. If you have any questions or comments about our Education programs, please email Jenn Rosen, VP of Ritual and Education.

REOIJIOUS SCHOOL

Registration is now open for Religious School 2019-20. Visit the Religious School page of our website to read all about this year’s plans, new Immunization policy, get a Religious School Calendar and link to register your child(ren) using ChaverWeb, our online member portal.

First day of Religious School is Sunday, August 25. Don’t miss the famous Welcome Back Pancake Breakfast, sponsored by our B’nei Mitzvah class. We look forward to seeing you all.

New class times:

SOCIAL ACTION

Help us become a Social Action Congregation! Demand Justice and take Action.

Our Jewish values direct us to study, worship and perform acts of loving-kindness. The goal of that work is tikkun olam, repairing and bringing healing and wholeness to the world. Our Social Action Committee (SAC) and our congregants are engaged in this work as individuals, families, and as a congregation led by our Rabbi who is a torch bearer for justice in our community. The SAC works to provide opportunities for all Temple members to have a positive impact in our community and create understanding and respect among our interfaith partners.

Here are some ways your family can fit into this work for social justice:

- Moore School Food Pantry: Volunteer to help shoppers or register clients
- Forsyth County CROP Hunger Walk: Sunday, October 20: Walk or raise money for the Temple Emanuel Team for local food pantries
- High Holy Days Food Drive: Fill grocery bags or donate funds to Crisis Control Ministry
- Moore School Food Pantry Backpack Drive: Donate money or school supplies to help kids start the school year prepared
- Refugee Resettlement: Volunteer to tutor in ESL and school kids in math, science or other subjects
- TEEM - Temple Emanuel Environmental Movement: volunteer and attend; help select movies and speakers for the 13th season, educating congregants and community on environmental issues and actions to bring change to help our threatened planet
- Interfaith Winston Salem: Break down barriers among people of different faiths; gather to share stories, discuss books, socialize
- All God’s Creatures: Help our non-human friends at the Fuzzy Friends Pet Food Pantry Fundraiser in November
- Continue your generous donations to Social Action related Funds that allow us to partner with community agencies and faith organizations to help our neighbors.
  - Social Action Fund supports a variety of Social Justice initiatives
  - Green Fund supports TEEM and our efforts to protect our planet;
  - Refugee Resettlement Fund allows us to help refugees pay for Green Card application process and launch them on a path to citizenship
  - Moore School Food Pantry Fund helping to feed families for our neighborhood school
- Stay informed about Jewish Social Justice initiatives through the RAC (Religious Action Center of URJ).
- Form your own opinions and take actions on issues that touch your heart.

Please share your thoughts or questions by email Jean Fromson, Social Action Committee Chair

TEEM: TEMPLE EMANUEL ENVIRONMENTAL MOVEMENT

Beginning year 13...raising awareness of environmental issues and suggesting positive actions. Free Admission. Volunteers needed to staff movie nights, research topic and do publicity. Contributions to the temple’s Green Fund enable purchase of films for our Lending Library. Questions, or to volunteer, call Gayle Tuch 336-766-2767 or email her.

Leil Tisha B’Av: A Night of Remembrance

Saturday, August 10, 8:00 PM, Temple Sanctuary

We will gather for prayer and study in solemnity as we recall the destruction of the ancient Temples in Jerusalem in 586 BCE by the Babylonians and 70 CE by the Romans. Why do we remember atrocities from so long ago? “In remembrance is the secret of redemption,” said the Ba’al Shem Tov. In order to redeem ourselves and our world, we must consider the past and relearn from it constantly.
THE MAVENS (Senior Programming)

The Mavens had a very enjoyable July Sunday afternoon excursion to the Yadkinville Cultural Arts Center’s Willingham Theater to see the musical, “NEWSIES”. The boys in the cast were an extremely talented group who danced and sang throughout the entire show.

Fall Mavens gatherings will be held in the Temple Social Hall, and will start with Chair Yoga, led by Neal Haberman, starting promptly at 11:00 AM. Bring your own bag lunch, and enjoy desserts and beverages that will be provided by Mavens members during social time, 12:00-12:45, followed by guest speakers and programs.

September 12: Helping Immigrants: English as a Second Language (ESL) Program

The Winston Salem YMCA, in partnership with United Way, runs an extensive ESL Program to help new arrivals in our community. Through one-on-one learning sessions with volunteers and group sessions with educational leaders, this program has proven invaluable to those seeking to learn a new culture and language. We will gain insight into how immigrants learn English.

Guest speakers: Nury Anton and Gitte Sato. Both speak 3 languages. Nury is from Caracas, Venezuela; living here for 23 years; working as the ESL coordinator for the YMCA Literacy program for 4 years. Gitte is from Sweden; living here for 5 years; working as the reading coordinator for the YMCA literacy program for 1 year and has been a tutor for three years.

October 17 (third Thursday) Stay tuned for details of our October gathering, delayed 1 week following Yom Kippur.

November 14: The Secret WWll Concentration Camp Diary of Odd Nansen: Selected Diary Readings by Timothy Boyce. Watch for details about the program and our guest speaker, who was recommended by Eva Gelfand.

If you have any questions, please email Gail Stein.

FUNDRAISING

Recapping our Tradition of Giving results for the 2018-19 year yields mixed emotions for me. On the positive side, our membership was extremely generous with the total amount of the donations we received, as we had record-breaking success in that regard. On the son-in-law side (“not bad, but we were hoping for better”), we had only 45% of our members make at least a single donation of any amount, to any fund. While this was an improvement over the prior year, it was far below our goal of 80%. To mangle a phrase from “Cool Hand Luke,” what we had here was a failure to participate. We will be looking to improve these results next year. A full listing of 2018-19 donors can be found on Page 16. To all of you, we give a sincere “thanks!” If your name is not on that list, take this opportunity to be among the first to observe that giving feeling for the new fiscal year.

Our annual fundraiser (“FUN”raiser) was our Casino Night on April 27. This had just the opposite result from our Tradition of Giving. While we didn’t raise as much money as we might have hoped, we had great participation from the congregation (our main goal), and all the comments we received were extremely positive.

All in all, we feel we had a successful year. I thank my fellow committee members for all of their hard work and input. The new team has much to live up to!

B’shalom,
Dave Rosenblatt

Preschool had a great summer of camp fun. With beach week, recycled art, and tons of outdoor time, the students and teachers had a marvelous time.

Now we are organizing and getting ready for a brand new school year!

High Holy Day Choir
Add your voice to the Temple Emanuel High Holy Days Choir
Rosh HaShanah: Sunday, September 29 and Monday, September 30
