There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated. And there are individuals whose memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights shine in the darkest night and illumine for us the path...

_Hannah Szenes_

כִּי בָּכָלֵיהּ סָוד בָּאָנָלָהּ.

For in remembrance is the secret to redemption.

A Time for Yizkor / Memorial
“In remembrance is the secret of redemption.” (Ba’al Shem Tov, 18th century, Ukraine)

Portrait Painters of the Soul ~ Joshua Loth Liebman

Judaism is the religion of life which makes no cult out of death, which seeks no private salvation from the grave, which accepts with confidence and trust both the miracle of birth and the mystery of death. Our faith does not close its eyes to tragedy and does not deny that we human beings shall never possess the everlastingness of stone the silent perduring quality of the mountain peak, but we have other gifts, conscious minds, aspiring hearts, far-visioned souls. Our faith tells us that God has given to each human being the ability to paint a portrait large or small, beautiful or ugly, radiant or blooming, and our faith summons us to become a portrait painter of a soul-landscape that shall be worthy to be hung in any art gallery of the spirit. Judaism proclaims that God has arranged our journey so that in years brief or many we can find love, joy and the fruits of fulfillment, partial and relative though they be, and that when our day is finished, we should accept its final note with the same calm trust that we greet the skylark’s song at sunrise.

Ecclesiastes 3 ~ A time for every longing beneath the heavens ...

For every time, and season to every longing beneath the heavens, there is:
A time to give birth and a time to die.
A time to plant and time to uproot what is planted. A time to kill and a time to heal;
a time to break apart and a time to build.
A time to cry and a time to laugh; a time of lamenting and a time of dancing.
A time to cast away stones and a time of gathering stones;
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing. A time to seek and a time to lose;
a time to keep and a time to let go.

A time to tear and a time to sew; a time to keep silence and a time to speak. A time to love and a time to hate; a time of war and a time for peace. God has made everything beautiful for its time. God has placed the Universe in humanity’s heart and yet no person will find the (secret to the) act of Creation which God has done from the outset to its end. I have known that there is nothing better than to rejoice and to do good during life.

From Psalm 121

Esa einai, el heh-harim may-ayin yavo ezri.
Ezri meim Adonai oseh shamayim va’aretz.

I lift up mine eyes unto the mountains, from whence does my help come?
My help comes from the Lord, Maker of heaven and earth.

Yizkor Prayers / 1
Psalm 23 ~ The Lord is My Shepherd

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He guideth me in straight paths for His name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou hast anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Birth is a Beginning ~ Rabbi Alvin Fine

Birth is a beginning and death a destination; But life is a journey, a going - a growing from stage to stage. From childhood to maturity and youth to age; From innocence to awareness and ignorance to knowing; From foolishness to discretion and then perhaps to wisdom. From weakness to strength or from strength to weakness and often back again; From health to sickness and we pray to health again.

From offense to forgiveness from loneliness to love from joy to gratitude from pain to compassion from grief to understanding from fear to faith. From defeat to defeat to defeat until looking backwards or ahead.

We see that victory lies not at some high point along the way but in having made the journey step by step - a sacred pilgrimage.

Birth is a beginning and death a destination And life is a journey; A sacred journey to life everlasting.
During this sacred hour, we arrive drawn by ties that bind our soul to yours.
Death has separated us.
You are no longer at our side to share the beauty of the passing moment.
We cannot look to you to lighten our burdens,
to lend us your strength, your counsel, your faith.
And yet what you mean to us neither withers nor fades.
For a time we touched hands and hearts; still your voice abides within us, still your tender glance remains a joy to us.
For you are part of us forever;
something of you has become a deathless song upon our lips.
And so beyond the ache that tells us how much we miss you,
a deeper thought compels - we were together.
We hold you still in our minds, and give thanks for life and love.
The happiness that was, the memories that do not fade, are a gift that cannot be lost.
You continue to bless our days and years. We will always give thanks to you.

El Malei Rachamim ~ God full of Compassion

O God full of compassion, Eternal Spirit of the Universe, grant perfect rest under the wings of Your Presence to our loved ones who have entered eternity. Master of Mercy, let them find refuge forever in the shadow of Your wings, and let their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life. The Eternal God is their inheritance. May they rest in peace, and let us say: Amen.

Kaddish Yatom - Mourner’s Kaddish

Yitgadal v’yitkadash sh’mei raba b’alma di-v’ra chi-rutei, v’yam-lich mal-chu-tei b’cha-yei-chon u-v’yo-mei-chon u-vcha-yei d’chol beit Yis-raeil, ba-a-ga-la u-vi-z’man ka-riv, vi-m’ru: amein.

Y’hei sh’mei ra-ba m’va-rach l’a-lam u-l’al-mei al-ma-ya.

Yizkor Prayers / 3

Ye’hei sh’lama rabah min sh’maya v’chayim aleinu v’al kol yisraeil, v’im’ru: amein.

Oseh shalom bimromav, hu ya’ah-seh shalom aleinu, v’al kol yisraeil, v’im’ru: amein.

May the name of God be made great and sanctified, throughout the world, which God has willfully created. May God’s rule be established in your lifetime and in your days, and in the lifetime of the entire household of Israel, swiftly and in the near future; and say, Amen. May God’s great name be blessed, forever and ever. Blessed, praised, glorified, exalted, extolled, honored elevated and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, Blessed is God - above and beyond any blessings and hymns, Praises and consolations which are uttered in the world; and say Amen. May there be abundant peace from Heaven, and life, upon us and upon all Israel; and say, Amen.

May the memories of our loved ones inspire us
To seek in our lives those qualities of mind and heart
Which we recall with special gratitude.

May we help to bring closer to fulfillment
Their highest ideals and noblest strivings.

May the memories of our loved ones deepen our loyalty
To that which cannot die -- Our faith, our love, and devotion to our heritage.

As we ponder life’s transience and frailty,
Help us, O God, to use each precious moment wisely,
To fill each day with the compassion and kindness
Which You have placed within our reach.

Thus will the memories of our loved ones abide among us
As a source of undying inspiration and enduring blessing.
